DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Amendments to the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure became effective December 1, 1999 which provide, among other things, that, unless the court orders otherwise, an automatic ten-day stay is in effect as to:

Orders in Chapter 9 and Chapter 11 cases confirming plans (Rule 3020(e));
Orders granting relief from the automatic stay (Rule 4001(a)(3));
Orders authorizing the use, sale or lease of property, other than cash collateral (Rule 6004(g));
Orders authorizing the trustee to assign an executory contract or unexpired lease (Rule 6006(d)).

The court may enter an order avoiding the automatic imposition of the ten-day stay:

1. When the order is issued pursuant to a motion, (a) which has been served upon the parties, (b) which specifically requests that the ten-day stay not apply, and (c) to which there has been no response or objection filed; or
2. When there is a previous consent order or order of settlement pending which provided for the granting of such relief upon specified conditions and the underlying motion or agreement requested the avoidance of the imposition of the ten-day stay; or
3. When the parties in interest give written consent.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
